

Cool a Hot Summer with Films and Interfaith Dialogue

Sponsored by the Alabama Faith Council and Jewish Community Relations Committee of
The Birmingham Jewish Federation

Where: Jewish Community Center
3960 Montclair Rd, Auditorium

Cost: Free (light refreshments provided)

Time: Sundays, 3:00 – 5:30 PM

Movies and Dates:

Gandhi*	June 27
Enemy Mine	July 11
Slumdog Millionaire	July 25
The Kingdom of Heaven*	August 8

*(*These two movies will be abbreviated to fit our afternoon timeframe.)*

Movies begin at 3:00 PM, so arrive early for popcorn and beverage service. After each screening we will have structured small group dialogue and group sharing for understanding about diversity in faith, common values and community issues raised in each film. These movies have the common threads of interfaith encounters in politics and personal choices in challenging situations.

For more information contact:

Carolyn Foster, AFC Director 205-591-0700
Helene Loper, IFD Co-chair 205-242-3162

Funding for the film series has been underwritten by the Unrestricted Fund of the Birmingham Jewish Foundation.